TURK TERMS ARE DECLINED

Stillman Loses His Suit To Get Divorce

'GUILTY RELATIONS' CHARGED TO BANKER BY REFEREE'S EDICT IN THE NOTED CASE

Mrs. Stillman's Cleared Of All Charges Made By Her Husband

LEGITIMACY OF CHILD ESTABLISHED BY COURT

Attorneys For Stillman Expected To Appeal The Decision Immediately

(By International News Service)

CARMEL, N. Y., Sept. 29.—James A. Stillman, former multi-millionaire president of the National City Bank of New York, today lost his suit for divorce against his wife, Mrs. Ann Urquhart Stillman, when the referee, Daniel J. Gleason, handed down a decision holding Stillman guilty of misconduct with a woman and completely exonerating Mrs. Stillman of the charges the plaintiff had filed against her.

The decision establishes the legitimacy of Mrs. Stillman's little son, Guy, which had been attacked by James A. Stillman. The banker had alleged that Fred Beauvais, a Canadian guide, whom he named as co-respondent, was the father of little Guy. Referee Gleason's report said testimony had shown guilty relations between Stillman and Florence Lee, former chorus girl, upon Stillman's private yacht "Modesty," and at various places in New York and Florida, between 1917 and 1921. No mention of alimony was made in the report. Previous announcement had been made by counsel of both sides that an appeal would be taken. It is believed that Stillman's counsel will take steps to appeal at once. Mrs. Stillman was not present. It is understood she is motoring in New England. Counsel representing Mrs. Stillman and her friends were jubilant. They said her sweeping victory had completely cleared her character of all the charges her husband made against her. In his complaint the banker had charged his wife with improper relations with Beauvais at numerous places in the province of Quebec, Can., where he maintained a summer camp; at a hotel in Montreal and at other places, including the Stillman Country estate at Ponconico Hills, N. Y., near the estate of John D. Rockefeller.

The referee said Mrs. Stillman was not guilty of any of these charges. The plaintiff had introduced letters which he claimed were written Mrs. Stillman by Beauvais. Mrs. Stillman disclaimed these communications, saying they were forgeries.

Men Who Battled in Injunction Suit

Federal Judge Wilkerson, in Chicago, has granted what is called the most sweeping injunction ever signed in the plea of the Government to restrain the striking railroad shopmen. Attorney-General Daugherty, with his assistants, shown in the op row, fought for the injunction, while the attorney in the lower row represented labro's interests.

EXHUMATION SHOWS MRS. MILLS' THROAT WAS CUT BY SLAYER

(By International News Service)

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Sept. 29.—Startling disclosures that may presage important new developments in New Jersey's famous double murder resulted today from the exhumation of the body of Mrs. Eleanor Mills.

Mrs. Mills body was found Sept. 16 beside that of Dr. Edward Wheeler Hall, rector of St. John's church, in a neglected orchard on the outskirts of New Brunswick.

Examination of the body showed there were three wounds in her head, any one of which would have proved fatal. Mrs. Mills throat had been cut. The wound in her throat apparently had been made with a sharp instrument.

No opinion was expressed as the result of the autopsy, as to whether Mrs. Mills' throat was cut before or after the bullet wounds were inflicted.

Announcement of the result of today's autopsy was the first definite information made public that Mrs. Mills had suffered violence other than through bullet wounds.

The first autopsy, performed by County Physician Dr. William H. Long, of Somerset County, failed to mention mutilation of the woman's throat and also said only one bullet wound had been found.

The report of the autopsy was incorporated in a statement by A. L. Beckman, Somerset prosecutor.

The first autopsy, performed by County Physician Dr. William H. Long, of Somerset County, does not compare favorably with the last one. "Three unmistakable bullet wounds were found in the head," Beckman said. "Three bullets were found in the head of the type which we are informed are fired from an automatic pistol. One of the bullets entered the center of the forehead near the hair line. One bullet entered the upper right cheek. Another entered the right temple above the ear." A fourth wound resembling a bullet wound, was found in the center of the upper lip. This wound, he said, might have been from a spent bullet, as it had not penetrated far. There was no evidence of infidelity to her husband indicated by Mrs. Mill's condition. The autopsy confirmed the belief that the pistol used was of 38 caliber. This is the caliber of the empty shell found near the bodies. There was no way to estimate the range of the bullets or their direction, it was said.

KIWANIS OF VALLEY ENTERTAINED HERE WITH BARBECUE AT COCA COLA PLANT

Manager C. D. Phillips Is Host To Big Crowd of Visitors

MEMBERS ASSEMBLED AT THE CLUBROOMS

Visitors' Prize Awarded Eli Haggard, Whose Address Stirs Audience

Members of the Kiwanis Club of Huntsville, Tuscaloosa, Sheffield, Callman and Albany-Decatur on yesterday at noon lunch were guests of the Coca-Cola Bottling Works and probably a jollier crowd was never gotten together, for the manager, C. D. Phillips, had made provision to have the visitors shown every courtesy, which he did, in the superlative degree.

The members assembled at the Kiwanian rooms on Bank Street about 11:30 o'clock and after a season of song and story from the jolly bunch, the visitors' prize was awarded Eli Haggard of the Tri-Cities Daily, of Sheffield, who, in voicing appreciation, made a short address filled with humor and pathos that not only excited the risibilities of his hearers, but reached the heart with a simple recitation of an original poem. Mr. Haggard's address was all too short and at the conclusion he received enthusiastic applause that sure must have warmed the cockles of Eli's heart. Other visitors took occasion to express appreciation of being among those invited, not failing to extend cordial invitation to visit their home towns and promising to make it warm for The Kiwanis Club if at some future time they would give them a chance.

Greeting to visitors was extended by Big Chief Calvin, most cordially, who took occasion to send a shot of wit here and there, making all feel at home and welcome.

Entering autos at 12:30 o'clock all hands were driven to the Coca-Cola Bottling Works where Brunswick stew was spread to its guests, sandwiches with barbecued lamb and pig and Coca Cola. Guests felt to with a gusto and for the time being a hush fell upon the party for little time could be given to anything else but the cravings of the inner man. The good things were prepared by A. C. McCree, of Huntsville, and were of most excellent quality. If Brother McCree is as good at the insurance business as he is at making a Brunswick stew, he certainly is a dandy. Pictures were taken of the party and if some of those "mugs" were caught by the camera in all their gace and beauty it's a sure thing that much damage was done the instrument, possibly its entire demolition.

The manager of the Coca-Cola Bottling Works threw open the entire plant to inspection and the visitors were shown a manufacturing establishment that probably has few equals in Alabama. Inside and outside from top to bottom, every thing is scrupulously clean and neat from front to back.

The actual working at the local Coca-Cola plant revealed that one of the communities most interesting industries had been overlooked for the time being in the writeups being given.

RECORD ATTENDANCE UNDIMINISHED 3RD DAY OF LIMESTONE'S BIGGEST EXPOSITION

Third and Last Day of Fair Brings Climax Of Enthusiasm

MERCHANTS CLOSE UP STORES FOR AFTERNOON

All Limestone County And Much of Morgan Is Taking Part

(By J. E. Blair)

The third and last day of the Limestone County Fair brought a climax of interest and enthusiasm, with the record attendance undiminished.

This morning passed quietly, but the throngs were full of expectancy for the final reports as to winners of stock and farm produce, prizes, and of the racing money for the last day, when the fastest horses at the fair were to go on the metal. Authorities stated that not before Saturday would they be ready to make a complete list as to the premiums and their winners.

This morning following an agreement, all the merchants and bankers closed their houses promptly on the stroke of 12 so they could join in the festivities at the fair grounds directly after the dinner hour.

As night was setting in yesterday the balloonists of the fair was making his twilight flight and his dangerous fall with his parachute—all of which he accomplished without harm to any one. The trotting and pacing races were the features of yesterday afternoon's program with feats of strength by a one legged man, and the dive of a high-diver thrown in between the races. The diver met with what might have been a serious accident, for the ropes on which he lighted, instead of sustaining him, fell suddenly to the ground just as he struck them but as luck would have it the man escaped uninjured. And in the races, when the last contest was being waged, Mr. Carmichael of Nashville, driving Helen Star sustained what at first looked like a fatal injury. His sulky was overturned in much the same way as was Messala's chariot in the famous chariot race described in Ben Hur.

And it looked like a fine mare was killed for both horse and jockey lay motionless for several minutes where they had been thrown through a fence and onto the hard ground beyond. But later both man and beast were seen limping to their quarters and Mr. Carmichael said that he believed he was only severely shaken up but he might have sustained internal injuries for all he knew. The accident was regarded as unavoidable and due to Helen Star breaking and swerving from her course.

As none of the horses that won money yesterday save those of Frank Finny, of Huntsville, and I. P. Russell, of Stevenson, are known locally, the score will be omitted. Mr. Finny's horse was named "Dr. Ike," and he won two straight heats out of three starts, time 2:23 1-4. Ike is a handsome stallion.

Mr. Russell drove his pet Bessie King, "as honest as the days are long," he said. But she recently lost her left eye, and was weak and feverish, or she might have beaten the big stallion. It developed that Russell, the "High Jackson" horseman, and his young son, are up in the picture.

No Big Number Of Men Wanted At Wilson Dam

No great number of men can obtain employment at Wilson Dam, The Daily was informed this afternoon in a long distance message from Florence.

Rumors have been current that beginning Monday hundreds of employees would be taken on but The Daily is informed that this is an error.

Only about 20 or 30 men may be employed on any one day, it was stated, and practically all of the labor now being employed is unskilled. The latter class, the pay scale of which is $2.80 per day is the only class of labor which may be employed at the dam without examination.

The Daily understands that practically all of the skilled labor now employed is and has been for some time already examined and awaiting government call.

The Daily's information is that there is very little opportunity for work at the dam for large numbers of men.

MRS. THOS. WATSON MAY BE APPOINTED MEMBER OF SENATE

(By International News Service)

THOMPSON, Ga., Sept. 29.—The close friends of the late Senator Thomas E. Watson today were planning to urge that Governor Hardwick appoint Watson's widow to the senate until a primary can be held to determine his successor. They point out that such action would do much to allay the bitterness now said to be held toward the governor by some of the friends of the late Senator.

PROMOTION DAY TO BE OBSERVED

Sunday, Oct. 1, will be rally and promotion day at the Austinville Methodist Sunday School. A very attractive program is being prepared, consisting of recitations, special musical selections and addresses.

A part of the program will be with reference to the Cradle Roll, which under the superintendency of Mrs. Maud Sybert, has an enrollment of 78 babies; also the Home Department which has 22 members under the superintendency of Mrs. Edna Royer. The Superintendent, M. B. Holt, is to be congratulated on the steady progress the Sunday School has made the past year. All members and friends of the Sunday School have been invited to attend the exercises, which mark the beginning of what is expected to be the greatest year in the history of the Sunday School.

The exercises will be from 9:45 a. m. to 12 o'clock. The babies of the Cradle Roll and also the members of the Home Department are expected to be present.

Jadie England Dies At Falkville Home

(By International News Service)

FALKVILLE, Ala., Sept. 29.—After an illness of several days duration of meningitis, Jadie England, a well known farmer residing near Falkville, in the southwestern part of the county, died at his home Thursday. Mr. England is survived by a wife and children. Interment will be made today in the Herring grave yard.

KEMAL'S OFFER TO REMAIN IN ALLIED NEUTRAL ZONE TO MEET A REFUSAL

British Insistent Turks Must Evacuate The Entire Allied Area

RUSSIA WILL NOT TAKE PART IN THE CAMPAIGN

Ex-King Constantine And Royal Family Flee—Venizelos In Paris

(By International News Service)

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Mustapha Kemal Pasha's note to General Harrington saying that the Turks would continue to hold their present positions in the neutral zone, but would advance no further, is not acceptable to the British government. It was learned in Downing street today.

British officials stated that the Turks must leave the neutral zone, but that General Harrington had been instructed to use his own discretion as to the time limit for withdrawal.

(Associated Press.)

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Grave fears that a recurrence of general warfare in Europe might result from the Near East crisis were occupying the minds of British officials, it was stated in authoritative quarters.

RUSSIA NEUTRAL

(By International News Service)

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Fear of British officials that reorganization of the Red Army in South Russia means military aid for the Turks is groundless, it was declared this afternoon by Alex Rothenstein, representative of the Moscow government in London.

"Russia has not taken any military steps in the Near East," he said. "So long as Russia is invited to the Near East peace conference and there is no interference with Russian trade, we do not think Constantinople worth the blood of a single Russian soldier. Russia is not preparing to help Turkey."

ATHENS, Sept. 29.—Constantine, abdicated king of Greece, former Queen Sophie, Prince Nicholas and Prince Andrew were secretly taken on board a warship and have disappeared for some unknown destination, it was reliably reported today.

Political circles believe that the reign of King George will be brief and that a republic will be established. Revolutionary leaders are in communication with Venizelos. He may be the first president if the republican factors are successful.

VENIZELOS IN PARIS.

(By International News Service)

PARIS, Sept. 29.—Former Premier Venizelos arrived here at noon to seek allied support for the revolutionary movement in Greece. It was understood that Venizelos planned to confer with French officials at the foreign office in an effort to reconcile them to the plan of the Greek revolutionists to defend Thrace against Turkish occupation.

French secret service agents met Venizelos at the St. Lazare railway station to protect him from assassination. The Greek statesman was accompanied only by his wife.

THE COUNTY FAIRS.

That the county fairs which are being held over the country from year to year have great bearing on every industry in the several counties where they are held, has been noticed by every one who has had occasion to observe and attend them. First of all the agriculture interest is the chief concern of all county fairs. To stimulate the industry; to raise larger specimen of the various agricultural products; to bring together the products of the farm and home to the attention of the city dweller, increases the co-operation between the two, and makes a more co-operative partnership, for in reality we are all partners with the agriculturist. When he fails, we fail; when he is prosperous, every other line of industry prospers also.

Perhaps one of the lines of industry which has received great stimulus from the county fairs, is the dairy industry. From year to year there is exhibited pure bred cattle and milk stock. Where these are exhibited there is always some who desire to improve their herd, and consequently buy some of this registered stock. Every section of the country now boasts of some pure bred cattle, and the result is, there is more attention being paid to dairying at present time, than at any period in our history.

Home economics and home canning each has received great stimulating power from the exhibits each year at the fair, as exhibits were made of these home accessories, and others have gone back to their homes determined to make greater efforts along these lines than formerly.

All these things tend to develop a country along the right lines. When any country fails to conserve and take care of what nature has placed at their disposal, it declines or goes forward as the case may be.

WHERE NATURE SMILES AND EDITORS ARE OPTIMISTIC.

These are days of rare delight up in the beautiful Tennessee valley of North Alabama. There nature smiles upon a land of plenty. The sunshine and the shadows fall upon a people whose lot has been cast in pleasant places. The rains give moisture to a soil rich in the elements that make abundant plant life in it, and the harvests always are bountiful in the Tennessee Valley.

Up in the prosperous, charming Tennessee Valley, the people are contented with blessing they receive, and they should be or the blessings are abundant. Only a land of plenty, of contentment and of beauty could inspire the optimism, the satisfaction, the confidence that is found in the following from the Albany-Decatur Daily:

We are just now experiencing delightful weather in the Tennessee Valley. The nights are cool and the days are not hot enough to make it unpleasant. We are rapidly approaching the Autumnal Equinox, when we are then done with hot weather. As a whole, the climate in this valley is yearly pronounced delightful. The lateness of the Fall weather makes it possible to plant and raise two crops of garden vegetables. Many of the gardens of the county are now furnishing a tempting array of vegetables which usually come with the first Spring weather. A glance at any of the grocery stores in the Twin Cities will disclose that vegetables of all kinds are still plentiful and there can be seen daily many vehicles coming into the Twin Cities loaded with many varieties of garden stuff fresh from the country. A great country we have, and its greatness is hardly appreciated by us as it should be.

It is the duty of newspapers to look upon the bright side of things and to encourage their readers to cast off pessimism and have confidence in the future, and the Albany-Decatur Daily is doing this duty well. It certainly is "a great country we have, and its greatness is hardly appreciated by us as it should be." The Albany-Decatur paper's fine optimism, however, will encourage its readers to appreciate more fully the good country in which we all live.—Anniston Star.

O, for one moment of peace, is no doubt the words which are just now uppermost in the minds of all the people of the Old World. Torn asunder for years, with blood and treasure poured out unceasingly with no peaceful moments pervading, is enough to cause something to come in between to make such a thing possible. War has become a disease, and is the cause of more preventable deaths than any other thing on the earth today. Wars are likewise a form of savagery. When wars prevail, the better thinking powers of the nations of earth has flown, and stays away until reason returns, or one of the other is annihilated.

If all the money which has been used to carry on wars during the last ten years had been expended in better pursuits, there could have been erected a college and it stocked with the best of teachers for every family; a pike road leading to every home; a cloth manufactory for every cotton field of the south; a church school and teachers for every heathen in the land; alms houses for all the poor, and enough left to give every man, woman and child in the world plenty of spending money. The above has not been figured to a mathematical certainty, but from the figures available as to the actual cost of the conflicts over the period of time indicated above, it would seem a reasonable computation, and yet the news of fresh conflicts continues to come.

Things which are fundamentally right cannot go very far wrong. It is a principle as old as the hills. The Bible illustration of the two men, one building his house upon the rock, the other the sand, is the same principle today as then. There must be a sure and safe foundation. Unless there is, the superstructure however imposing and grand, cannot stand. In a world where there is so much of the superficial, the real is very noticeable.

Germany has had another six months breathing spell in order to get ready to meet the demands of the Allies in regard to the reparations to be paid them, or to have the opportunity to make and formulate such excuses as that she will be enabled to put them off again in regard to the payments. As an excuse maker, Germany is without a peer. But she made none when she was destroying with a ruthless hand what it took centuries of patient labor to produce.

The golden moments of life are when there is complete harmony pervading every fibre of ones being. It is devoid of discords because there is no occasion for doubt to enter. When doubt is allowed to come in, harmony departs and doubts and fears enter.

It is said that the sky is the limit to the expenses which may be incurred in the coming fall senatorial elections, nationally. And we might add, may the good Lord take care of us when the hoops are slackened around the pork barrel.

Turkey seems to have gotten in her bluff alright, evidently imitating the strutting of the turkey gobbler. He always did look dangerous when he was all blown up.

There is always room at the top provided one is a good climber and has the inclination to go upward.

The day dreams of youth are but the memory pictures, painted at a time when they are indelibly placed on life's canvas.

The unspeakable Turk has made a comeback into Europe. Inasmuch as the United States and other big brother nations refused to "do it unto to least of these" their brethren—the Armenian Christians. Voters should say in November to the enemies of world peace under law—"Depart from us, ye workers of iniquity".

The advance of the Turkish army served to draw the countries of England, France, and Italy into closer ties for the sake of civilization; but if the U. S. had seen any reason for co-operation among so called civilized nations, it has not been so you could tell it.

A distortion of facts never helped an argument. It has a rebounding power which hurls that which is not truth to an abyss from which it cannot be extricated.

MINISTERS SPEAK AT STRIKERS' MEET

Revs. R. F. Stuckey and G. C. Walker, S. E. Roper, Mrs. E. H. Turner, W. R. McCluskey and T. Frank Lewis were the regular speakers at the rail strikers' meeting this morning, and others made brief speeches.

It was announced that Rev. J. Fred Jones and Melvin Hutson were to speak at Saturday morning's meeting and S. E. Roper stated that he had assurances that one of the officers of the railway department of the A. F. of L. would attend the meeting. Mr. Roper agreed to speak at length tomorrow and stated that early next week he would go to Atlanta, Ga., where he had been called for a conference.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Jack Davis, and it was closed with prayer by Rev. G. C. Walker.

The usual reports of the standing committees were made and the committee on the special program at the Princess tonight stated that "Billy" Williams, local fast dancer, would act the part of a "Blackfaced Comedian" tonight, and that Crane's Quartette, composed of Graham, McCullough, Hutchison, and Gilbert Crane, would furnish a snappy musical program in addition to the picture.

At the close of the meeting, the Executive Committee held a meeting in the Carmen's Hall, and the Boiler-makers a meeting at Hardage Hall.

HARRINGTON CONFERS

(Associated Press.)
 CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.—Brigadier General Harrington, commander of the British forces in the Dardanelles, will leave for a conference with Mustafa Kemal Pasha, probably at Mundania.

The British are confident that if the next 24 hours pass without firing at Chanak or other Dardanelle points, all immediate danger of hostilities will have been avoided.

Miss Janie Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sullivan, died suddenly at the home of her parents in Fairview Thursday morning after a brief illness of a few hours. She was 14 and was greatly beloved by her large circle of friends and relatives. Services for the deceased will be held at the home today at 3 p. m. with burial in the city cemetery.

The "Elephant and Castle," The Elephant and Castle was a famous landmark in South London, England, deriving its sign from the arms of the Cutlers' company. A tavern in St. Pancras parish, London, took its sign from the skeleton of an elephant, beside which was a flint-headed spear, excavated in the neighborhood. The connection between these two relics and the battle fought by the followers of Queen Boudicca against the Roman invaders was unmistakable.

YOUR HEALTH Do You Know How To Bathe a Sick Person?

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
 Commissioner of Health, New York City

CLEANLINESS is the secret of health and long life. Spare the water and you spoil the child. Neglect the body and sickness is sure to come. The patient's bath is one of the most important features of his treatment. Do you know how to bathe a sick person?

You should close the windows and let the room become warm. In the meantime gather all the needed things together. A small table or a chair should be placed near the bed. Spread over this a clean towel. Place on it a basin, a washbowl or a milk-pail. Also place a pitcher of hot water, a cake of soap on a dish, two towels and a washcloth.

Protect the bed from getting wet by stretching beneath the patient a blanket or a bath towel. This is easily done by rolling the patient to one side, placing the blanket and rolling the patient back into his original position.

Remove unnecessary overbedding, leaving just enough to keep the patient comfortable. Bathe and dry one leg at a time, leaving the rest of the body covered. Wash the patient's back last.

The bathing being completed, remove the protecting blanket and replace the sheet. Sit up on the pillow, take the wrinkle out of the sheet by pulling clear up and darken the room, and very soon the patient will be asleep.

If the doctor should order a foot-bath this does not mean that the patient is to be set out of bed to have it. The bed clothes may be loosened from the foot of the bed, the mattress and the linen or cotton sheet protected by a rubber sheet, or by a towel wrapped over a few layers of newspaper. Then place the foot-tub or pan in the bed and fill it one-third full with water, warm or hot, as the doctor directs.

After twenty minutes or half an hour the pan may be removed. In the meantime the water has been kept at uniform temperature by frequent additions of a little hot water, taking great care not to burn the patient. Dry the feet and rub briskly with a rough towel. This method keeps the bed dry and protects the patient against cold.

If the patient is able to move he may be assisted to a nearby bathroom, provided the doctor permits. Watch the sick person, help him in and out of the tub, do not allow him to remain too long in the water, and make sure his strength is not overtaxed.

When the patient gets back into bed, place a hot water bottle at his feet and give him a nice warm drink.

There should be frequent sponging of the hands and face. This adds amazingly to the comfort of a sick person. If he has fever, cold sponging lowers the temperature and relieves the aching head.

Before each meal wash the patient's hands and clean his finger-nails to make sure the food he eats is handled with perfectly clean hands.

The teeth should be cleaned at least twice a day, and the hair combed at regular intervals. Perfect cleanliness will shorten the illness and promote the comfort of the sick person.

Answers to Health Questions

MISS H. E. Q.—I cannot breathe through my nose and at the same time my eyes are itchy. What causes this?

A.—I would suggest that you consult a reliable nose specialist for an examination and treatment. There must be something wrong, but just what it is cannot be told except by careful examination.

Young Sanders Russell drove his father's 4 year old, Sammy R, to victory for both the Rock City and the Hermitage stakes, at a 2:10 1-4 gait, a year ago, an achievement never surpassed by a Southern farm boy. The Russells own a large farm at Stevenson and maintain a racing course on the farm. Mrs. Russell and all the children travel with the horsemen wherever they go with the string of pacers and trotters.

All the horses at Athens will race at Huntsville, Oct. 11, 12, 13 and 14. Mr. Finney and others from Huntsville are advertising their fair to the limit. They and other horsemen seen at the Athens Fair, are declaring that Morgan County should have an annual fair and a race track at the Twin Cities, as the cities are right on the Cross Roads where the horsemen have to pass every season on their way to nearby counties.

Local People In Attendance.

The following local people were noted at the fair: Judge Ogola Kyle, G. O. Chenuit, R. H. Walcott, W. R. Smith, M. A. Andrew H. T. Baxter, Mason Crow, R. H. M. Rigsby, Henry Binford and W. E. Crawford.

REVIVAL CONTINUES TO ATTRACT CROWD AT 1ST METHODIST

The revival in progress at the First Methodist Church, Decatur, made marked progress throughout the two services of yesterday. Large congregations attended both afternoon and night services. The general attendance of the church membership and of the public is gratifying.

Four presented themselves for membership at the service last night.

Rev. Mr. Kimbrough is preaching the pure gospel. The sermons are well received and much good is being done.

Tonight will be school night. Large attendance of the school children is expected. The glee club will sing at this service.

KITCHEN SHOWER FOR MISS MATHENY.

Miss Katherine McCormac gave a kitchen shower last evening for Miss Gertrude Matheny, bride-elect of Oct. 7. A crowd of young friends gathered at the home of the hostess and were given a pencil and paper, the boys writing advice to the groom and the girls giving their favorite receipt which were placed in a loose leaf cook book. At this time the honoree entered with the groom-elect, Warren Gardner, and was presented with the cook book and read the advice which created much merriment. A needle, spool of thread, and thimble were given each guest and to the boys a dust cloth and to the girls, a cup towel. They were asked to hem them.

Those finishing first were Miss Marie Talley and Gene Collier and they were presented prizes which they in turn presented the bride and groom-elect.

Little Doris Gardner dressed in gingham apron and Claud Trimble in Overalls brought in the gifts in large pans and showered the couple with gifts from those present who were of the D. K. T. Club, Misses Maud and Vera Smith, Marie Talley, Irene Clemm, Flora and Annie Mae Gardner, Lucille Bailey and Ruth Banks and Messrs. Robert Banks, Owen Watson, Joe Aiken, John Witty Lovin, A. Taxable Value of All Property Is Given; Records Reveal Many Unusual Totals

Assessments in Aggregate Show Reduction Of Some $2,000,000 Under Last Year

The following facts are available from the tax books which have just been compiled for the new tax values for the new tax year which begins October 1st. The officials of these two offices have just finished compiling an tabulating the value of every taxable item on which tax is collectable. From these figures it is found that the taxable values of all property in the county is $17,920,648 which is $2,404,941 less than the amount assessed last year, said reduction being chiefly in farm lands. The total amount the tax collector has to collect for the new tax year is $355,000, of which the county gets $134,427.17. The total amount derived from the special school districts from the three mill tax is approximately $40,000. This amount represents an increase of 40,000 more than the schools of Morgan county received four years ago.

The number of acres included in the new assessment is 382,770, valued at $4,606,559, exclusive of improvements. The average value for assessment of farm lands in the county per acre is $12.50.

Water companies, electric power companies, gas companies and street railways, $500,256; tracks, rolling stock and rights of way of steam railroads, $1,492,657.

The assessed value of property exempt from taxation in the county is,

Ben Russell, of Somerville, is in the Twin Cities today en route home from a week spent in Kentucky.

A. F. Houston is in Athens on business this week.

Asbury Malone and Ethridge Adams motored to Birmingham Thursday.

Rev. J. H. Hill left at an early hour today for Falkville, where he will officiate at the funeral of Jodie England, whose death occurred at his home west of that place Thursday.

Chinese Highways.

The wider the street, the more the uses to which it can be put, so that travel in the broad streets of Peking is often as difficult as that in the narrow alleys of Canton. An "imperial highway" in China is not one which is kept in order by the emperor, but rather one which may have to be put in order for the emperor. All such highways might rather be called lowways; for, as they are never repaired, they soon become incomparably worse than no road at all.

Cutting Window Glass.

Window glass is blown in the shape of long cylinders, which are cut open, along one side and then placed on a stone in a hot furnace, where they gradually flatten out into a big sheet of glass. Often the glass breaks during this process, or even explodes, forming thousands of pieces, which fly in all directions, sometimes endangering the workers.

Not at All Misleading.

The young reporter had been warned repeatedly against the use of true expressions in his writings. However, he couldn't break the habit and one day he landed in the following account of a public hanging. They wondered why the editor laughed. "The huge crowd which gathered bright and early for the hanging at the county jail this morning was not kept waiting, for the business of the day started off with a swing."

Relative Importance.

Crane's Clothes

HELP BUILD PERSONALITY

The Trump Card of Crane's Clothes is--FIT

Melody is apparent even to one who does not know a note of music. A man may not know "cotton" from wool, machine-work from hand-tailoring, but the moment he stands before our mirror in a suit of CRANE'S Clothes—he recognizes fit, including a "drape" of inimitable grace which remains even after the garment has become worn by long service.

Rheumatism at 60

S.S.S. Thoroughly Rids the Body of Rheumatism Impurities.

Somebody's mother is suffering tonight. The scourge of rheumatism has wrecked her body; limping and suffering, bent forward, she sees but the common ground, but her aged heart still belongs to the stars! Does anybody care? S.S.S. is one of the greatest blood-purifiers known, and it helps build more blood cells. Its medicinal ingredients are purely vegetable. It never disarranges the stomach. It is, in fact, a splendid tonic, a blood maker, a blood enricher. It banishes rheumatism from joints, muscles and the entire body. It builds firm flesh. It is what somebody's mother needs tonight. Mother, if you can not go out to get a bottle of S.S.S. yourself, surely somebody in your family will. Somebody, get a bottle of S.S.S. now! Let somebody's mother begin to feel joyful again tonight. Maybe, maybe it's your mother! S.S.S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

How glorious you will feel, mother, when your rheumatism is all gone. Let S.S.S. do it. It will build you up, too!

Nu-Grape, orange and lemon crushes, strawberry drinks, Delaware punch, Cherry blossoms, Buffalo Rock Ginger Ale, and Coca-Cola are he drinks now being put up at the Coca-Cola Bottling Works, located on Fourth Avenue, Central Town, Albany. The building is of brick, one story, and extends the entire length of a regular city lot.

Steam Cleanliness in Evidence.
Because live steam cleans the cleanest of anything else on earth, the management of this concern employs it on the floors, walls and on the ceiling in places where it can be reached. Also every one of the intricate machines are live steam cleaned. "Steam will go where a cloth or brush will not go," said Mr. Wilson.

"Hot, live steam is blown from above and below into the stone containers of the several kinds of syrups used. Human hand touches not and handles not, any of the receptacles into which the syrup or the carbonated water goes.

How It Is All Done.

When the machinery started this morning the Coca-Cola syrup also started and syrup ran along a pipe, until an empty bottle stood directly under the syrup spout. There are many such spouts.

As the bottle pauses a moment in goes the syrup, then another bottle comes up to be filled and so at the amazing rate of 100 cases an hour or 1,000 cases in a day. A machine similar to the one that gets the syrup, bottled, later gets the carbonated water "filler" put in with the syrup. An attendant sits and takes the full bottles that have in a jiffy been corked and handles them under a bright electric light and sets one bottle after another into its case and the cases are inspected and loaded at once for local retailers and also for customers at Town Creek, Trinity, Hillsboro, Wheeler, Courtland, Moulton, Valhalla, Somerville, Hartselle, Flint, Austinville and other outlying towns.

The Bottle Washer.

The chief "bottle washer" is an august person as in the old days when such ancient drinks as beer were put up and sold, but at the local plant the washer is a high priced machine, with plenty of hot water, 120 degrees hot, and an abundance of caustic soda in it. This solution pours up and down, inside and outside for 20 minutes and 72 gallons of water goes through each bottle.

The bottles are candled before the syrup is allowed to go into them and 3,600 bottles are washed an hour, according to Mr. Wilson.

Dr. C. A. Grode, health officer of Madison County, one of the visitors with the Kiwanians, remarked on the steam cleaning process here as the only such one in the South and said as for sanitary condition at the local Coca-Cola plant he had nothing to add or to take away in the matter of suggestions.

Metals That Burn.

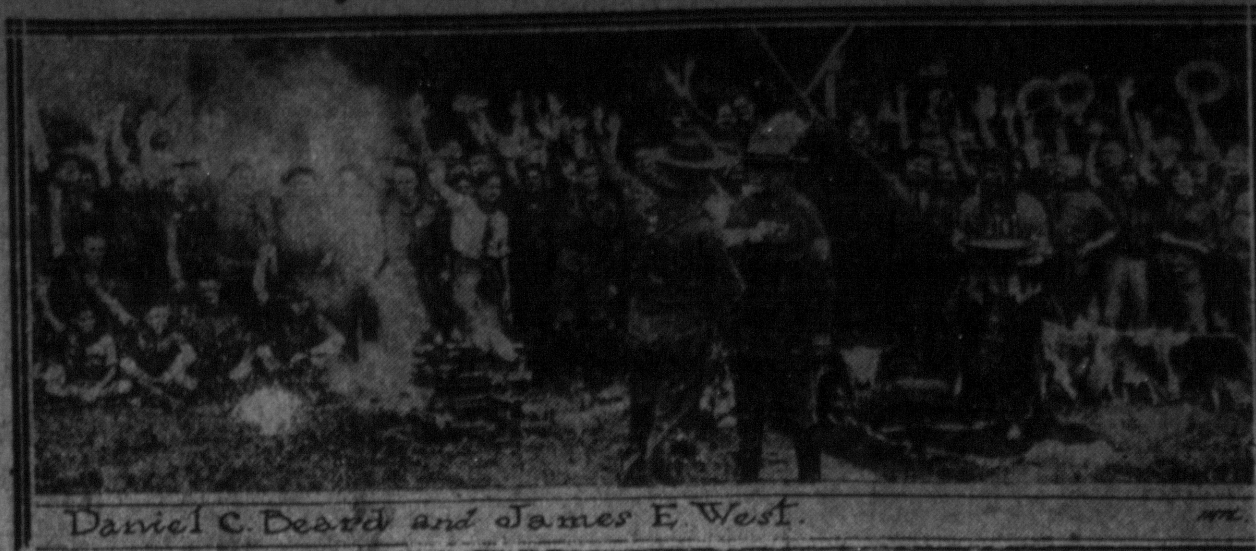

Metals, if finely powdered, will burn rapidly. In one recent explosion of aluminum dust six girls lost their lives and many more were injured. An explosion of hard-rubber dust, not long ago, resulted in the deaths of six workmen. Within the last few years there have been many such disasters in sugar mills, candy factories, spice mills, cork factories, drug works, paper mills, etc. Any kind of dust that is combustible will explode if distributed plentifully through the air of a closed place and ignited.

Old Pennsylvania County.

Chester county is the oldest in Pennsylvania. It was organized of the three original counties (Chester, Philadelphia and Bucks) of the Province of Pennsylvania, granted to William Penn by royal charter, dated March 4, 1681. These three counties were along the right margin of the Delaware river and extended indefinitely into the interior.

Boy Scouts Honor Their Chief

Daniel C. Beard and James E. West.

At a recent conference of Boy Scout executives in Blue Ridge, N. C., Daniel Carter Beard, National Commissioner and Chairman of the Court of Honor, was presented by James E. West, Chief Scout, representing all the other executives, with a gold Eagle Badge, the highest award in scouting. About 5,000 boys have won the badge in the past ten years, but "Uncle Dan" has the only solid gold one.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Stealing and has the inside newspaper slant bags out of automobiles doesn't on men and affairs; but I don't believe that's it. It's a human, discerning book that anyone will enjoy it who never saw the inside of a newspaper office. Mr. Rogers worked on the New York Herald and Life for 17 years. And it is a funny thing but great men tell artists things they would never think of telling to a reporter.

It would be a good bye to the day of the bachelor girl if Mme. Sushila Devi, Hindu lecturer and writer, had her way. Mme. Devi, who is here lecturing, explains that she believes marriage should be compulsory, and that no young woman should be allowed by law to reach the age of 30 without matrimonial ties. As for unhappy marriages, come to the Orient, she says, and learn contentment. It is only a matter of obtaining the proper frame of mind.

Next to the physician there is probably no one in whom people confide as freely and volubly as the artist who is doing their portrait. Partly as a result of this the best book of "inside stories" which I have come across in a long, long time is "A World Worth While," by William A. Rogers, dean of American cartoonists. Maybe I'm prejudiced because Mr. Rogers is a newspaper artist,

Well-Populated "Villages."
The distribution of the population of China is a curious thing to contemplate, says Eleanor Franklin Egan, in the Saturday Evening Post. A hundred thousand people may be gathered together within what might rightly be regarded as city limits, but on the map their city will be indicated as a mere village that is not worth considering. Moreover, they will not have established a single feature of city organization. Villages of 100,000 inhabitants are rather difficult to visualize, but they exist in China.

In Humor and Irony.
As Cervantes in the age of the Inquisition was driven to take refuge in humorous irony in order to make known his sentiments without giving a handle to the Sacred Office—so, too, Goethe was able, in the character of a humorist, to express what as a minister of state and a courtier he would not have ventured to say outright. Goethe never suppressed the truth, but when debarred from displaying the naked truth he draped it in humor and irony.—He'ae.

taking the Rattle Out of Rattlesnake
In a combat between a diamond rattlesnake and a blue racer, the latter was victorious over his more virulent adversary. During the fight, reports a writer in Science, the racer was badly bitten by the rattler; whereupon the former worked his way to a patch of weeds and bit into the stems, extracting the juice, after which he returned to renew the fray. This peculiar performance was repeated in a short time, when the racer again returned and destroyed the rattlesnake.—Scientific American.

98 Out of Every 100 Women Benefited

An Absolutely Reliable Statement Important to Every Woman

Remarkable Results Shown by a Nation Wide Canvass of Women Purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. — 50,000 Women Answer —

For some time a circular has been enclosed with each bottle of our medicine bearing this question: "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?" Replies, to date, have been received from over 50,000 women answering that question. 98 per cent of which say YES. That means that 98 out of every 100 women who take the medicine for the ailments for which it is recommended are benefited by it.

This is a most remarkable record of efficiency. We doubt if any other medicine in the world equals it. Think of it—only two women out of 100 received no benefit—98 successes out of a possible 100. Did you ever hear of anything like it? We must admit that we, ourselves, are astonished.

Such evidence should induce every woman suffering from any ailment peculiar to her sex to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and see if she can't be one of the 98 THE LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO., Lynn, Mass.

Of course we know that our medicine does benefit the large majority of women who take it. But that only two out of 100 received no benefit is most astonishing.

It only goes to prove, however, that a medicine specialized for certain definite ailments—not a cure all—one that is made by the most scientific process; not from drugs, but from a combination of nature's roots and herbs, can and does do more good than hastily prepared prescriptions.

You see, we have been making, improving and refining this medicine for over 50 years until it is so perfect and so well adapted to women's needs that it actually has the virtue to benefit 98 out of every 100 women who take it. Its reliability and recognized efficiency has gained for it a sale in almost every country in the world—leading all others.
